ACTUAL STARVATION.

Facts About Indigestion and Its Relief That Should Interest You.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good looking, good smelling and good tasting food because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any food.
We believe we can relieve dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation what ever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want everyone troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial according to directions. Then if not satisfied come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.
A 25 cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases a longer treatment of course is necessary and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases we have two larger sizes which sell for 50 cents and $1. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. The B. M. Hyde Drug Co.

THEATRICAL.

"THE GIRL OF MY DREAMS" AT LEXINGTON.

Mr. Joseph M. Gates will present at the Lexington Opera House Tuesday and Wednesday and Wednesday matinee, December 19 and 20, John Hayns and Leila McIntyre in the delightful atmospheric musical play "The Girl of My Dreams."
"The Girl of My Dreams" is described as an atmospheric musical play. It is in two acts, Carl Hoeschna is responsible for the music which he confidently asserts is even more alluring than his two former great successes, "The Three Twins" and "Bright Eyes."

Mr. Gates has engaged an exceptionally well balanced company of players to support Hyans and McIntyre. The production is promised to be a most elaborate one, both from a scenic as well as costume standpoint, together with a special augmented orchestra.
The sale of seats will open Saturday morning, December 16, and all orders sent to Manager Scott accompanied by a remittance will receive prompt attention. Special rates will be made by the railroads.

HENRY MILLER AT LEXINGTON

Henry Miller will come to the Lexington Opera House for one performance only on Friday evening, December 15 in H. S. Sheldon's famous play, "The Havoc," supported by exactly the same company that appeared with him throughout "The Havoc's" all season run at the Bijou Theater in New York last year. Mr. Miller was seen here just a year ago in a farce comedy, "Her Husband's Wife."
This season he returns in the biggest role he has ever played in, a drama of tremendous power and gripping appeal. Neither his famous Sidney Carton in "The Only Way," nor his Stephen Ghent in "The Great Divide," gave him the opportunity for big acting afforded by his new role of Richard Craig, the wronged husband in "The Havoc."

Some idea of Mr. Miller's overwhelming power in the play may be gathered by the tributes paid to him by critics both in the East and West. "Mr. Miller," said Munsey's Magazine, "is superb in 'The Havoc.'"
"It is really a remarkable play," said the Smart Set Magazine, "and it is uncommonly well acted by Henry Miller."
"The Havoc" overwhelmed the audiences at the Columbia Theater last night," said the San Francisco Call, "it is played with consummate skill."
"It is the best thing Henry Miller has ever done," said the Philadelphia Inquirer. "In 'The Havoc,' said the Philadelphia Times, "Mr. Miller touches the zenith of his career."
"It is a lesson in big acting," said the New York Telegraph, and the New York Times said "Henry Miller has done nothing so powerful or artistic during his brilliant career on the American stage."

Not In These Days of Politics.
Patient old Job, it may be remembered, even foretold the coming of a day when "all the beasts of the field shall be at peace."—Chicago Tribune.

Red Cross Seals Having Heavy Sale.

The little Red Cross seals are meeting with a heavy sale in this city and the places where they are to be secured report that a larger number have been disposed of than for the same period of last year.

The work here is in charge of the Paris Literary Club and the stamps have been put on sale at the drug stores, jewelry stores and during the whole of next week will be found on sale at the dry goods stores throughout the city.

This work is being pushed all over the State and Paris is expected to bring up its share and contribute through the purchase of the little Christmas seals to the fund for the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis. A small per cent from the sale of the seals all over the country goes to the National Red Cross Society by which the seals are printed on a scale which reduces their cost to the infinitesimal. After this commission is deducted the net proceeds are equally divided between state and local organizations.

The sale of the seals means much toward the prevention and treatment of the white plague in this state and each package that goes out on Christmas should be adorned with the little Christmas stamps.
